Geauga Savings Bank Holds Beachwood Ribbon Cutting Event Marks the Official Opening of the Local Bank's Newest Office

Newbury, Ohio, July 14, 2017 – On Tuesday June 27th, Geauga Savings Bank held an official ribbon cutting ceremony to formally open their newest office. The office, located at 24755 Chagrin Blvd Suite 110 in Beachwood offers a full-line of retail banking, mortgage lending and business banking services. Beachwood marks the latest expansion of service and convenience for the local bank and a significant investment in the community.

The event included the Beachwood Mayor Merle Gorden, Beachwood Chamber of commerce president, Martin Horwitz, and council members Melvin Jacobs and Barbara Janovitz. The ribbon cutting and open house celebrated the latest business joining a growing Beachwood area.

“We are delighted to be a part of the wonderful Beachwood community. Management has been working for some time to have a meaningful presence in such a strong city. The City Administration, including Mayor Merle Gorden and City Council have been cooperative and welcoming of our refurbished facility. With Bob Bloom’s, Dell Duncan’s and other’s deep roots in Beachwood and the surrounding area, it was only natural to expand into the community,” said Jim Kleinfelter, President and CEO of Geauga Savings Bank.

Dell Duncan, EVP, added, “We already offer all of our loan, and most of our deposit services out of the Beachwood office; full service banking is anticipated in the next few months. With our numerous electronic banking options, customers can already access a full range of GSB banking services, delivered with a consistently high level of service. In an era of bank consolidation management is excited to bring community banking to Beachwood and the Greater Cleveland market.”

Geauga is looking to actively grow commercial relationships in the Northeast Ohio market, the new office brings the expertise of staff and a bank focused on providing banking support for our community from our community.

Another member of the Beachwood team and providing residential mortgage lending services is Ron Webb, VP of Residential Mortgage Lending.
